I'm a programmer and digital designer with almost 3 years of experience. I believe that the combination of art and design with advanced technologies gives unlimited possibilities. Creativity and a designer's touch is what distinguishes me from the rest of the candidates and I am strongly convinced that the versatility of my abilities will be useful to your company. As such, here are the skills I will bring:

- A strong commitment to the industry, having contributed my talents in coding and design in a variety of roles.

- A forward-thinking initiatives concerning modern solutions and innovation in the industry.

- Adaptability, knowledge and experience which will result in successful projects.

- Willingness and desire to develop my skills by facing new challenges and learning new technologies.

Thank you for your consideration and please feel free to contact me in any form suitable.

Sincerely,
Konrad Studzinski
